- Profile

A native of Tamura City, Fukushima Prefecture. Took part in the community rejuvenation activity “Tamura City Revitalization Supporting Group” from September 2013. In April 2017, after her marriage relocated to Namie Town, where evacuation order had just lifted. Organized unincorporated association “Namitomo” to make the “life in Namie Town” fun by connecting senior residents and youths. Creating occasions regularly for members to exchange knowledges and views, such as mochi-pounding and town-strolling programs, and events to talk about disaster reduction measures in local community.
